

Holding an Event at Urban Space 100

Urban Space is a modern space format at the intersection of various urban environments. A restaurant where you can eat as well as hold a presentation, discuss ideas, and find like-minded people. You will find it convenient to hold a press conference, book presentation, lecture, concert, dialogue or business breakfast here.

All events held at the venue are completely free of charge and cannot involve direct political, religious, discriminatory appeals, advertising or information of the aforementioned nature.

To hold an event at Urban Space 100, fill out the EVENT APPLICATION* form
